Civil Case # 25-1258

Petition for Amicus Filing Permission

Introduction

- Energy Transfer brings action for declaratory relief alleging unconstitutional administrative hearing in the matter of Wyderka v. Energy Transfer, a whistleblower allegation, Department of Labor Administrative Law Case #2023-PSI-00001
- I, Andrew Wyderka, am complainant in that case and Energy Transfer is respondent.
- I will not completely recount the case history of DOL ALJ #2023-PSI-00001 and will state the most relevant facts:
 - Energy Transfer has, in that case, filed motion to dismiss for lack of subject matter jurisdiction citing US Supreme Court Case 22-859 SEC v. Jaresky (2024)
 - Energy Transfer then filed motion for Interlocutory Appeal with the Administrative Review Board (ARB)
- It can be seen that while I am not a plaintiff nor defendant in this case, the natural course of its proceedings stems from this ongoing ALJ Case in which I am complainant.

Argument:

I find no rules or precedent by this court relating to the filing of Amicus Curiae Briefs. However, it may be seen in the rules of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, as revised 2024, that procedures are listed for Amicus filings and so there is precedent for such briefs being admissible in District Courts. (accessed from:

https://www.dcd.uscourts.gov/sites/dcd/files/local_rules/Local%20Rules%20Jan_2024.pdf, see P.32)

It is plain that I, as complainant in the directly related ALJ#2023-PSI-00001, have a vested interest in the outcome of this proceeding and its impact upon my whistleblower case. Additionally, I know of no other whistleblower who has sought to file an Amicus brief and I petition to file my brief on their behalf as well.

Relief Sought

I petition this court to for leave to file Amicus Brief (s) relating to the proceedings.

I am proceeding pro se in DOL ALJ#2023-PSI-00001, and in this filing, I petition the court for clarification and any orders about appropriate filing dates as well as any orders that may be necessary and proper for me to know. I have searched for and found no rules relating to this district and its amicus procedure in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

I petition this court for permission to amend this filing as necessary and proper, as needed.

Respectfully submitted,

Andrew J Wyderka
